

CLASSIC CULTURES & ARCHAEOLOGICAL TREASURES

The Mediterranean is truly one of the world's greatest destinations, where humanity has long expanded its imagination and artistry. Discover many of the world's wonders, both ancient and modern, admire sun-soaked countryside and indulge in renowned culinary offerings. While the infamous capitals of Rome and Athens will naturally steal the headlines, the lesser trodden Adriatic jewels of Montenegro and Croatia provide refreshing and novel points of interest.

The magic of Northern Europe's famed castles echo medieval myths and historic tales throughout their halls. Anticipate unforgettable experiences in cosmopolitan cities, such as Paris and Amsterdam and follow a charming cobblestone street towards a local's only pub and break out in song while strolling through the rolling green countryside of Ireland.
